Why do you want to be a member of the Board?

I have been an active member for four years, during which I've been a vocal advocate and supporter of the club and its initiatives – and have recruited several new members as a result. I am an enthusiast of playing, spectating, and contributing to local tennis communities. Getting more involved at CVTC is a great way for me to further engage with the club and leverage my leadership skills to enhance the club's operations.

I believe I can leverage these skills, along with my strong tennis enthusiasm, to make the best decisions with the club and its valued members at the forefront.
